

Flickerfest 14th International Short Film Festival

Flickerfest International Short Film Festival is now in its 14th year and has been hailed as Australia's leading premiere international short film festival and over the past few years has become a vital date in the Sydney cultural calendar.

The festival will take place between 7-16 January and is held at the wonderful location of Bondi Pavilion outside under the stars. After Bondi it participates in a 15 venue national tour around Australia encompassing key geographical areas.

We are delighted to extend to you an invitation to become a 'Flicker-Friend' and to support the ongoing development of Flickerfest.

Flickerfest is a cinematic celebration of short film from Australia and around the globe and 2004 saw a staggering 910 entries received, an increase of over 20% from 2003 figures.

The calibre of the films submitted, or invited as part of our special programs is a testimony to the level of excellence that we have continually strived to achieve and Flickerfest is no stranger to screening prestigious award winners.

Most recently HARVIE KRUMPET (Australia) directed by Melbourne based Adam Elliot scooped an Oscar beating animation heavy weights Pixar, Disney and 20th Century Fox.

In addition to the wonderful success that Flickerfest has recently achieved I am also pleased to announce three new honorary patrons, Cate Blanchett, Baz Luhrmann and Claudia Karvan, who we believe will all be wonderful ambassadors for the festival and active in their encouragement and support of the film industry.

Flickerfest is Australia's only Academy Accredited short film festival. Our profile has become synonymous with excellence in film culture in Australia and as a 'Flicker-Friend' you are associated with the leaders of our industry, defining the future direction for Australian film.
